Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

The term "fair-weather friend" might need a technological-era updating. Perhaps "short attention span friend" would work. In our world of multiple communication platforms, it somehow has become increasingly easy to lose track of friends. We shouldn't be surprised when we reach out and they've moved on due to our indifference. The God who is love and whose covenant is one-hundred percent about relationship is depicted in the same way by Jesus today. Hey God, remember us? There was that one time we were really in trouble and you helped out; well, we're in trouble again. But we may find that God has moved on since we turned out to be only foul-weather friends. The covenant relationship has two parties: God and us. If that covenant relationship falls apart, and we're no longer "friended" by God, it's not because God failed as a friend. Keeping up the friendship and relationship with God is equally our responsibility.

WORTHY TEACHERS

All who undertake to teach must be endowed with deep love, the greatest patience, and, most of all, profound humility. The Lord will find them worthy to become fellow workers with him in the cause of truth.
 —St. Joseph Calasanz

Vigésimo Primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

El término "amigo del tiempo justo" podría necesitar una actualización de la era tecnológica. Tal vez funcione "amigo con poca capacidad de atención". En nuestro mundo de múltiples plataformas de comunicación, cada vez es más fácil perder de vista a los amigos. No deberíamos sorprendernos cuando nos acercamos y ellos se han ido por nuestra indiferencia. El Dios que es amor y cuya alianza se basa al cien por cien en la relación es representado de la misma manera por Jesús hoy. Oye, Dios, ¿te acuerdas de nosotros? Hubo una vez en que estábamos realmente en problemas y nos ayudaste; pues bien, estamos en problemas otra vez. Pero puede que nos encontremos con que Dios ha seguido adelante desde que resultamos ser sólo amigos de mal agüero. La relación de alianza tiene dos partes: Dios y nosotros. Si esa relación de alianza se rompe, y ya no somos "amigos" de Dios, no es porque Dios haya fallado como amigo. Mantener la amistad y la relación con Dios es igualmente nuestra responsabilidad.
