VIGILANCE

Today Jesus proposes an attitude universally countercultural: vigilance. Whatever our other differences, we moderns dread delay; we hate to wait! All three readings call us to faith-filled vigilance, "focused" waiting, holy patience. In communion with our ancestors across the centuries—those to whom Wisdom and Hebrews were addressed—we, recalling the Rich Fool's sudden demise, must work, witness, and worship in this world with our hearts set on the future that God has prepared for us, the fulfillment of bold and beautiful promises: deliverance from threats without and burdens within, a heavenly homeland, a city yet to come. Well might all of us called to spiritual vigilance also spare a thought for those who work while others sleep—police, firefighters, first responders—making our own the night prayer attributed to Saint Augustine: "Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who wake, or watch, or weep tonight, and give your angels and saints charge over those who sleep. Tend your sick ones, O Lord Christ, give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for your love's sake. Amen."

BE NOT DECEIVED

Do not be disturbed by the clamor of this world, which passes like a shadow. Do not let the false delights of a deceptive world deceive you.
 —St. Clare

DILIGENCIA

Nuestra vigilancia ha de ser no sólo orante, sino orientada al servicio, ese equilibrio activo-contemplativo que tan a menudo propone el Jesús de Lucas. Aunque la ignorancia de los deseos del maestro puede ganar un indulto para algunos, Jesús supone que nosotros, que le escuchamos ahora, no tendremos derecho a esa mitigación. Utilizando la imagen favorita de Lucas sobre la comunión en la mesa, Jesús representa al amo "cifrándose", tal como se les ha dicho a los discípulos, y sirviendo a los siervos que perseveran en su servicio de vigilancia y trabajo. Cuántas veces desechamos un agradecimiento de los demás diciendo: "¡Es lo menos que podía hacer!" Y, lamentablemente, ¡cuántas veces hacemos lo mínimo que podemos! Pero el verdadero discipulado, en la perspectiva de Lucas, no consiste en conformarse con lo mínimo que podamos hacer hasta el regreso de nuestro maestro, sino en prepararse estando siempre listos para que venga su reino.
