THE READINGS AT MASS DON'T ALWAYS SEEM TO FIT TOGETHER

On the greatest feasts and solemnities of the Church's liturgical year, the three readings are chosen to all apply to the theme or the event being celebrated. During Ordinary Time, however, only the Jewish scriptures/Old Testament selections are chosen to go with the Gospel. The second reading makes its way independently through the New Testament letters and often appears to have a very different message. Today's readings, however, present us with that happy coincidence of a Sunday in Ordinary Time in which all three readings are very much closely connected—a connection that we might describe as God's generosity in nurturing the people so that they can in turn "nourish" each other by their acts of service and charity. Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 8, 2021
 I am the living bread that came down from heaven.
 — John 6:51

BUT TODAY THEY DO

In John's Gospel, Jesus insists over and over that he is the bread of life; when he sees that some of his listeners find this hard to believe, he insists on it even more strongly. Note that centuries before the Christians celebrate Jesus as the Bread of Life in the Eucharist, the psalmist sings, "Taste and see how good the Lord is!" John's Gospel contains no blessing of the Bread and Cup that the Church uses to consecrate the bread and wine. What John does have is Jesus washing the feet of the disciples and commanding them to wash each other's feet, which is to say, to serve each other without regard to station or rank. He also gives a long, prayerful discourse in which he gives the "new commandment" to love one another. Receiving Holy Communion is much more than a "me and Jesus" moment, although that is undoubtedly a precious encounter. Ultimately, our reception of the Bread of Life attains its fullness only in our mutual love and service in our communities and beyond. God fed Elisha to strengthen him on his journey. God fed the Israelites with manna on their journey in the wilderness. Today, we receive from God the Bread of Life for strength in whatever journey we are on. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.,

FIESTA DE LA FE
Dudas naturales

Es común que muchos cristianos vean la Eucaristía como un signo y no como una presencia real, dudan de que Cristo esté verdaderamente presente en el pan y el vino. La duda es natural y puede ser un buen medio para llegar a la verdad. La narración de la Institución está ligada a una tradición viva que los apóstoles escucharon directamente de labios de Jesús. ¡Sí! El mismo que había caminado sobre el agua, que había perdonado pecados, sanado enfermos de todo tipo; el mismo que había dado de comer a las multitudes y que había resucitado a Lázaro. Jesús el que se había transfigurado en la cima del monte. Por si todos sus milagros fueran pocos, el mismo que fue resucitado por Dios de entre los muertos. Ese mismo les había dicho: "esto es mi cuerpo, que será entregado por ustedes"; además dijo: "este es el cáliz de mi Sangre, sangre de la alianza nueva y eterna que será derramada por vosotros y por todos los hombres para el perdón de los pecados. Hagan esto en memoria mía". Por esa "sencilla" razón los cristianos no sólo celebramos la Eucaristía, sino que también creemos firmemente que el pan es su Cuerpo y el cáliz contiene su Sangre.

IMPORTANT NOTICE FROM THE DIocese OF LAREDO BISHOP JAMES TAMAYO

As we prepare to lift the Dispensation from the Obligation to Attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days, I am conscious of the sudden rise in COVID cases in the Diocese of Laredo. Reports of the Delta variant's presence within our communities has caused some concern about the use of masks during Mass and other church gatherings. Noting as always that this pandemic is ever-changing, we see the need to continually reevaluate our policies. In light of the latest CDC recommendations and the rise of hospitalizations of COVID cases, effective immediately and until further notice, the wearing of masks by everyone, regardless of vaccination status, is required for all church activities.
