LA ASCENSION DEL Señor
2 DE JUNIO DE 2019

Mientras que bendijo a los discípulos, Jesús se fue apartando de ellos y elevándose al cielo.
Lucas 24:51

Evangelio

Jn 17, 20-26

Padre, quiero que donde yo esté, estén también conmigo los que me has dado, para que contemplan mi gloria, la que me diste, porque me has amado desde antes de la creación del mundo.

Padre justo, el mundo no te ha conocido; pero yo sí te conozco y éstos han conocido que tú me enviaste. Yo les he dado a conocer tu nombre y se lo seguiré dando a conocer, para que el amor con que me amas esté en ellos y yo también en ellos”.

AQUÍ ESTÁ LO QUE PASÓ

El libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles y el Evangelio de Lucas utilizan la misma palabra, testigos, para describir el papel de los discípulos en el nuevo orden mundial. En nuestra cultura, un testigo puede ser alguien pasivo, un simple observador o, por otro lado, alguien más activo, un experto formal que provee un testimonio bajo juramento en un juicio. La palabra griega para testigo es mártir. Eso eleva los desafíos para los discípulos. Ellos observan a Jesús flotar en el aire, después de eso un ángel claramente se les aparece y les promete que Jesús volverá otra vez. Ellos ven que esto ocurre. Inmediatamente antes de la ascensión, Jesús les promete que recibirán el poder cuando el Espíritu Santo venga sobre ellos y serán sus testigos . . . , hasta los confines de la tierra. Su misión no es una tarea superficial para confirmar el rumor ocioso que Jesús verdaderamente flotaba en medio del aire. No, ellos deben desear jurar, aun con sus vidas, que Jesús es el Cristo que aceptó una crucifixión agonizante a causa nuestra, resucitó de la muerte, ascendió al cielo y prometió venir otra vez para ofrecernos la salvación final.

TRUTH MATTERS

Why would anyone be willing to die for that story? Why would anyone accept martyrdom just to make sure no one fiddles with the facts of Jesus' life? Tradition tells us, in fact, that all but one of the Twelve died as martyrs. These witnesses knew that Jesus' story is sacred, unique, and powerful--and that we have to get it right. We have to understand that Jesus is God, and that he actually conquered sin for us by dying on a cross. No other story can give us the kind of hope that Jesus' Good News does. And the story is true. Countless witnesses have died to transmit the saving legacy of Jesus Christ. We have inherited the truth. Every day, we take our place in the story, bringing hope to a needy world.
