MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

My brothers and sisters in Christ,
Today, Pentecost, is the official birthday of the church. When the Holy Spirit descended upon the apostles, our church was perpetually infused with the presence of God; we will never be alone.
You received this spirit initially at Baptism when you were anointed with Holy Chrism Oil and challenged to be a priest (help people), prophet (know you are always in the presence of God), and king (Be a good leader in the world). At your confirmation, Chrism Oil was once again placed on your forehead and infused with the Gifts of the Holy Spirit (Knowledge– Helps you to see yourself and others as images of God; Courage – Helps you to love God and others, especially when it is difficult; Right Judgment – Helps you to make decisions to live the faith: Wisdom – Helps you to love God with all your heart; Understanding – Helps you to learn about your faith in God; Reverence – Helps you to honor and respect God, and all people as children and images of God; and Wonder and Awe of God’s presence – Helps you to trust and obey God.

You have these gifts...you were infused with them to manifest them in ways that the grace of God grows in ourselves and those around us. If we use the gifts, the fruits of the spirit become reality in our lives: Peace, Love, Joy, Faith, Patience, Kindness, Goodness,, Gentleness and Self -Control. Isaiah has said that God promises these fruits to the people who use the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Re-commit yourself to once again let the Gifts of the Spirit work through you — ask God to strengthen the Spirit within your lives. Let’s change our worlds to be better than they are!

Fr. Juan Jose
