MADE RIGHT BEFORE GOD

Although the opening lines of today's first reading claim that the Lord "knows no favorites" (Sirach 35:15) and is "not unduly partial toward the weak" (35:16), the remainder of the passage makes it clear that the Lord does indeed pay special attention to the weak, the oppressed, and the orphans and widows. The psalmist reiterates: "The Lord hears the cry of the poor" (see Psalm 34:18). In the Gospel, Jesus claims that a tax collector is more justified in his prayer for mercy than the Pharisee, whose prayer was an account of his own righteous deeds. Jesus' point could not have been clearer: tax collectors in the Jewish society of Jesus' day were not just lowly; they were considered outcasts and cheaters. They collected taxes for the hated Romans and almost certainly collected enough to assure a generous income for themselves. Tax collectors were among society's outcasts; didn't this one just admit his own sinfulness? How could a tax collector be "justified" (that is, made right) before God, while the Pharisee was not? Why would God even listen to the prayer of a tax collector? This surely was a surprise, upsetting common assumptions about righteousness. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

NEVER ABANDONED

Lord, I do not ask that I never be afflicted, but only that you never abandon me in affliction.
 —St. Bernadette Soubirous

DO WE?

Jesus' parable in today's Gospel tells the story of two people. The Pharisee is puffed up with his own importance. His prayer is more a statement of self-justification in which he positions himself as being above the rest of humanity. So much so that he prays to himself, thanking God that he is so much better than everyone else! The tax collector on the other hand raises his eyes to God and acknowledges his sinfulness. He is the one Jesus says is justified, exalted in God's sight. What about us? Are we so puffed up with our own importance, so caught up in the stuff of our daily lives that we fail to recognize our failings or to see the needs of the people around us? This week, let us ask the Lord to pierce our hearts, help us to genuinely admit our failings, and truly live as followers of the one who gave his life so that all might live life to the fullest. God hears the cries of the weakest and relies on us to respond. story. Take a deep breath. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

¿LO HACEMOS?

La parábola de Jesús en el Evangelio de hoy cuenta la historia de dos personas. El fariseo se enorgullece de su propia importancia. Su oración es más bien una declaración de auto justificación en la que se sitúa por encima del resto de la humanidad. Tanto es así que reza para sí mismo, dando gracias a Dios por ser mucho mejor que los demás. El recaudador de impuestos, por el contrario, levanta los ojos hacia Dios y reconoce su pecaminosidad. Él es el que Jesús dice que está justificado, exaltado a los ojos de Dios. ¿Y nosotros? ¿Estamos tan engraidos con nuestra propia importancia, tan atrapados en las cosas de nuestra vida diaria que no reconocemos nuestros fallos ni vemos las necesidades de la gente que nos rodea? Esta semana, pidamos al Señor que nos atraviese el corazón, que nos ayude a reconocer de verdad nuestros fallos y a vivir realmente como seguidores de aquel que dio su vida para que todos pudieran vivir en plenitud. Dios escucha los gritos de los más débiles y confía en nuestra respuesta. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

NUNCA ABANDONADA

Señor, yo no te pido nunca sufrir aflicciones, sino tan solo que nunca me abandones en mi aflicción.

—Sta. Bernardita Soubirous
